Description

Prominently positioned on the northern corner of the Tower 42 Estate, 30 Old Broad Street offers a tenant the opportunity to occupy an extremely desirable City of London address. The available and highly efficient 4th floor benefits from exceptional natural light and a rare private roof terrace. The floor has been recently refurbished with a bespoke plug and play fit-out installed.

Available Q1 2025.

Location

Sitting within the Tower 42 Estate, 30 Old Broad Street benefits from a constantly evolving and carefully curated selection of retailers on its doorstep. In addition, the first-class retail destination, The Royal Exchange and the established dining option within Leadenhall Market are a short walk away. On completion of the works to Bishopsgate, occupiers will benefit from access to London's most transformational food, beverage and retail offerings being created by the large developments and the extensive re-development around Liverpool Street Station.

Liverpool Street station is within 5 minutes' walk, Bank station 6 minutes and Moorgate 9 minutes' walking distance.
